

Adverse and Independent Trustees.....	20	Additional or Successor Trustees.....	20	Trustee Trustees.....	18	Number of Trustees.....	18	Majority.....
Obligations of the Grantor.....	18
Responsibilities and Options.....	17
Beneficial Interest.....	15	Audits Requested by the Beneficiaries.....	16	Restrictions, Holder Removal.....	14
Transfer of TCUs.....	14
No personal Liability.....	14
TCUs for Officers of Trust.....	14
Inheritance of	14
100 TCUs for EXCHANGE.....	13
Trust Certificate Units (TCUs).....	13
Protector.....	10
Trust Estate Purpose.....	9
Trust Estate Corpus.....	9
Managed as a Trust Estate.....	9
Board of Trustees.....	8
Domicile of Company.....	7
Certification.....	7
Governing Instruments.....	7
Name and Date of Creation.....	4
Table of Contents

DECLARATION OF CONTRACT AND INDENTURE

NAME OF TRUST

TRUST

NAME OF TRUST

· FILLABLE TEMPLATE

· Replace all placeholders before notarization. Signed originals are authoritative.
· Yellow boxes are editable fields. Click to type in any PDF viewer.

Declaration of Trust

Unincorporated Business Trust

· NAME OF GRANTOR:
secret agreements or pre arrangements Grantor agrees and covenants that none of Grantor's estate not engaged and will not engage in any known or potential conflicts of interest.

The Trustees thus appointed are charged with the responsibility to govern wisely so the generations to Beneficiaries.
schedules within this indenture as Trust Holders, hereinafter referred to as Holders, and their
The Grantor declares and sets up an inter vivos Trust Estate for the benefit of heirs shown on suitable
This document is a Declaration of Contract and Indenture and is hereinafter referred to as an Indenture.
above and as named in Section I, Paragraph A, below. manage other Trust and legal entities. This allows the Trustees of it to act under the name as shown
I, Grantor of this Trust Estate, declare and announce that I intend to create and do create a Trust to

· 20XX:
· 20XX: · MONTH XX: MONTH XX, 20XX AT 00:00PM

NAME OF TRUST

DECLARATION OF CONTRACT AND INDENTURE OF

STATE REPUBLIC

United States of America

Index.....	38
Life and Duration of the Trust Estate.....	37
Charitable Contributions.....	36
Responsibilities.....	35
Accounting.....	35
Power to Borrow from the Trust Estate.....	34
Estate Property.....	33
Minutes.....	31
Appointments.....	30
Termination.....	28
Trustees Duties and Limited Liability.....	27
Powers of the Grantor to Build the Assets of the Trust.....	27
Trustee Responsibilities and Restraints.....	23
Executive Secretary.....	22
Management and Control of Trust Estate.....	20
Copies of Originals.....	38
Severability.....	38
Administration Expenses.....	37
Distributions.....	35
Termination of the Trust Estate.....	34
Power of Attorney.....	34
Privacy.....	32
Power to Distribute Principal.....	31
Third Parties relying on the actions by the Trustees.....	31
Meetings and.....	31
Trustee Liability for Negligence.....	29
Trustee Resignation and.....	28
Third Parties.....	28
Resident Trustee.....	28
Powers Held.....	27
Trustee Powers.....	25
Steward.....	23
Treasurer.....	23
Cotrustee.....	21
General Manager.....	21

B. The Grantor has no possessory interest in the Trust Estate, no reversionary interest, and no retained specifically set forth to be exercisable by the Grantor within this Indenture.

The Grantor cannot exercise any other significant power about this Trust Estate after its creation not

· Name of Grantor: [REDACTED] in any manner this Indenture. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] or its property. Name of Grantor will not revoke, change or end, or change
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] they cannot change beneficiaries, or remove or appoint other Trustees, or exercise administrative [REDACTED] control over the Trust Estate.

The Grantor does not reserve or hold dominion or control over the Trust Estate, nor any power to

A. Irrevocability: This Trust Estate is irrevocable and cannot be changed in any manner by the Grantor.

2. Irrevocable Status and Jurisdiction granted to man.

Trust Capital Units as shown on numbered Trust Certificates, under the inalienable Common Law rights Listed on proper schedules, certain assets are managed by the Trustees for Holders represented by outlined, described in and explained in this document.

B. It is sanctioned to exist and function by and through the Board of Trustees, by all the conditions

· Name of Trust: [REDACTED]
DATE OF ESTABLISHMENT, in the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] of Trust, contractual entity, was created on [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] the same.

be guided by the terms, conditions, purposes and intent of this Indenture, and the minutes interpreting Should it become necessary for a court of competent jurisdiction to protect the corpus here, it too will accounting to others than the Holders.

no court exercises any power conferred within this. There is no need to make current reports or any A court of law does not grant authority nor is it required to give authority to the Board of Trustees and Trust Estate.

rights secured under the Common Law of Contract, and the immunities granted by it, in managing this The Grantor requires, as part of considering this Contract, the Board of Trustees to act solely on the special power belonging only to a company or to a franchise of incorporation.

Nothing hereon will be construed as an intent to evade or go against any law, nor to delegate any

- Entity of statutory nature
- Joint Venture
- Corporation or Limited Liability Company
- Association
- A company by statute
- Partnership
- Trust agreement by gift

It is expressly declared that a Trust Estate by Contract is created and not a: fiduciaries in the best interest of the Holders.

The Trustees are not obligated to act in any manner other than as fair, unbiased and independent

5. Certification

serve as the governing instruments of this Estate, and its Board of Trustees.

The terms set forth in this Indenture as interpreted by resolutions recorded in the minutes of its meeting

4. Governing Instruments

presented to the Attorney General and President Eisenhower (Part I April 1956; Part II, June 1957).

Interdepartmental Committee for the Study of Jurisdiction Over Federal Areas Within States,"

It is further described within "Jurisdiction Over Federal Areas within States, Report of the 110 (d) and (e), respectively.

"Federal area" or "State" as defined in, among other places, the Buck Act at 4 U.S.C.S., Sections 105- including, but without limitation to, Article 1 Section 8, Clause 17, Article IV, Section 3, Clause 2 a This applies to other actual or asserted federal places or jurisdiction or a corporate judicial district, Columbia.

business, is ·commerce,""commercial activity," or "business" within an alleged federal state, District of B. Nothing contained herein is intended to consent to, or participate in, the "conduct of a trade or territory as defined in the Buck Act.

It is not subject to the definitions found in the Buck Act about a "State within a State," nor a federal common law identity.

for its existence. It is neither a partnership or a corporation, but a separate legal entity having its own It is, therefore, not created under the statutes of any United States and does not depend on any statute Paragraph 1 and Amendment 14. Section 1 of the Constitution for the United States.

Created under the common law of contracts, this Trust Estate is protected by Article 1, Sec. 10, constitutions of the several sovereign States comprising the union of the United States of America.

its original context as set forth in the Constitution for the United States, the Bill of Rights and the state

All references in this document to the United States refer to the Continental United States of America in inherent in the common law of the Republic of the United States of America.

A. The Grantor expressly declares this Trust Estate is created based on the freedoms and rights

3. Common Law Organization brings the properties from other Holders within the management of this Trust Estate.

Revocable or Irrevocable and the Grantor or others may transfer other properties to the Trustee. This Further, the Grantor gave careful consideration to the question of whether this Trust Estate is

· Name of Grantor:

· Name of Grantor:

amount of the property herein transf completing this Trust Estate and deems that name of Grantor is fully informed about the character and in the Grantor name, state name or Grantor has been fully advised about the legal effect of

be used for naming this Trust Estate.

accord with the purposes of the Grantor expressed in this Indenture. This power will not extend to nor

It may also be amended to secure a more efficient administration of the Trust Estate. Any change is in dissipating the income or assets of the Trust Estate.

this Trust Estate. This change or adjustment is only applicable if it is considered necessary to prevent

D. This indenture may be amended only by the unanimous action of all Trustees and Trust Holders of interest whatever.

C. Neither the Exchanger nor any Holders will have any right to revoke or amend this indenture.

V. The assets and emoluments of it immediately vest in any new Trustee(s) as fiduciary without further responsible to uphold the terms of the Indenture.

IV. Trustees who are appointed by the First Trustee sign an Acceptance of Trust and thus become

III. The Trustees, and not the Officers, are legally responsible for this Trust.

II. The Board of Trustees is the governing body of this Trust Estate.

(1) Executive Secretary who is not a voting member.

I. The Board of Trustees cannot have any less than three (3) members, i.e., two (2) Trustees, and one this Trust Estate.

F. The First Trustee appoints other Trustees and Officers who constitute the entire Board of Trustee for minutes.

Board of Trustees the property and fees now agreed to and set forth in schedules and subsequent

E. The First Trustee, by signing this Indenture and the Acceptance hereby accepts on behalf of the assets of this Trust as appropriate to its affairs.

D. The Board of Trustees, at its sole discretion, appoints Trustees or officers who serve to protect the without further act or conveyance, except as may be required by local law.

emoluments thereof immediately vest in any new Trustee chosen by the First Trustee as fiduciary

B. The First Trustee is the first member of the Board of Trustees of this Trust Estate. C. The assets and Trust Estate.

Only people of personal integrity, known by others to be reliable and steadfast, will be Trustees of this management. The disposition of this Trust Estate may be shuffled in the transitions and, thus, ignored.

A. No Trustee will be a corporation or banking institution as these organizations often change

7. Board of Trustees

best interest of the administration.

B. The principal resident address of this Trust Estate may be changed by the Board of Trustees in the Protector's decision under his or her powers listed in Section XI.

other state or nation believed prudent, wise, necessary, or proper by the Board of Trustees or by the The controlling interpretational laws, under which this Trust Estate is construed, may be changed to any of State where the Indenture will be interpreted and construed.

A. This Trust Estate is originally domiciled and governed under the Constitutional Laws of the Republic

6. Domicile of Trust - Situs exchanged in minutes.

The Grantor warrants his authority to transfer such interest in this property as is named to be of which is now and described as Initial corpus and accepted through minutes of the Board of Trustees.

These minutes are incorporated by reference immediately on its execution.

C. The Grantor transfers to the Board of Trustees of this Trust Estate certain property, the description of the property to be conveyed, and [redacted] [redacted] First Trustee

· Name of Trust: [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

this is the date of verbal agreement. The notarized signature testifies to the date of the verbal

A. This agreement, conveyance, and acceptance is made on the date appearing on this Indenture, as

E. To begin a program to increase the liberty and freedom of the Officers and Holders of the Trust

D. To provide for and encourage wise stewardship of asset;

C. To provide for loved ones and others;

B. To prevent the dissipation of wealth;

This administration is recorded in minutes, and in the manner designated in this indenture.

preserve, conserve, keep, invest, and develop such assets for the benefit of the Holders and their heirs.

A. To provide for managing the Trust Estate assets by natural persons acting in the fiduciary capacity to implied in other sections of this indenture, include:

The purpose of the Grantor in setting up this Trust Estate, besides those purposes expressed or determine the difference between income and corpus.

10. Trust Estate Purpose

E. The corpus total forms the baseline to be used in accounting methods and procedures, and to future Exchanger or any party will be added to the initial corpus and considered corpus.

assets received from the Grantor creates the initial Corpus. Any added property received from any

D. The first assets of this Trust are used for the initial administrative purpose. The initial exchange of of the Trust Estate and subject to all the terms of this Indenture.

C. Such property, with any other property added by the Grantor or other Exchangers, is to become part

B. The Board of Trustees handles the administrative needs of the initial corpus.

minutes.

records applicable to assets including suitable exhibits as necessary, listed and recognized in the initial U.S. Dollar Bill, plus assets shown on Schedule A in the section of the Trust

A. The property forming the initial corpus of the Trust Estate is Federal Reserve Notes of One ($1.00)

9. Trust Estate Corpus

with unnecessary inventories and cataloging unless assets merit the time and expense to keep them.

D. The Board of Trustees must use discretion in accepting assets, and not burden the administration Trust Estate, and are managed as provided herein.

C. All assets belonging to the Trust Estate are listed on the schedules kept in the record books of the

7. Can be converted to cash.

6. Use by Beneficiaries.

5. A valuable collectible.

4. Capacity to create a positive cash flow.

Estate, unless the proceeds of the sale are to accrue to the Trust Estate.

3. If the Exchangers want to sell the asset prior to his or her death, it should not be put into the Trust

2. Longevity or its likelihood to increase in value.

1. Intrinsic Value

B. The criteria for accepting assets is as follows:

transfer is approved by the Trustees.

insurance proceeds, assignment, will or any other method so long as the property and method of

A. Anyone may add property of value to the Trust Estate by gift, grant, conveyance, exchange,

8. Managed as a Trust Estate circumstances. In this matter, the Trust Protector needs to be involved in the decision.

minutes, needs such of any newly appointed Trustee for legal reasons or specific applicable

No bond is required of any Trustee appointed to the Board of Trustees unless the Board, by proper a bond.

act or conveyance, except as may be required by local law. VI. The First Trustee is not required to have assets, or as part of an investigation into the Trustee's conduct.

VI. The right to break a tie vote of the Trustees.

V. The right to ask for an audit of the Trust to help, teach and develop better protocols to protect ensure they are in alignment with cash flow to protect the corpus of the Trust for the Beneficiaries.

IV. The right to increase or decrease Trust fees, salaries, wages, and distribution percentages to risk. This includes a change of Trustee, situs or country.

III. The Protector has the right to change characteristics of the Trust to avoid exposure of the assets to

II. While the First Trustee can dismiss a Co-trustee, only the Protector can dismiss a First Trustee. dishonor to the Trust.

Due cause can be, for violation or lack of fulfillment of the indenture, and behavior which causes address.

Trustee on written notice, delivery by Certified Mail with a Notarized Affidavit of Mailing to said trustee-s

I. The Protector has the right and authority, on due cause, in his or her sole discretion, to dismiss a

H. Powers of the Protector succeeding Protectors. The details will be in the minutes.

III. The Board of Trustees reserves the right to set up instructions and standards for choosing within the minutes of this Trust Estate.

II. The Board of Trustees has the right to choose a succession of at least two Protectors to be on file

I. The Board of Trustees appoints the first Protector.

G. Appointments

position with this Trust.

F. The Protector signs a separate agreement that becomes part of this indenture when accepting the and the Protector.

E. The Protector will receive reasonable compensation for this position as agreed between the Board

D. The Protector can advise the Board of Trustees, should the Trustees so wish.

Trustees.

C. The Protector cannot be subservient or subordinate to any Trustee or family member of the

III. Actions which might bring discredit on the Trust Group.

II. Actions by its fiduciaries which could be harmful or destructive to the Trust Estate;

I. The overall legal status and holding of Trust property;

Certificate Holders. This includes:

B. The Protector secures and protects the present and contingent distribution rights of the Trust

A. The Protector ensures mediation and arbitration.

11. Protector

K. (Add your custom purpose for the trust or delete this section)

J. To encourage moral integrity;

spendthrifts on the Trust Corpus and assets;

I. To provide liability protection, privacy, and asset protection from unwarranted creditors and Grantor;

H. To provide information so the Trustees have a clear understanding of the direction and intent of the objects of value to be paid out yearly as set forth within this indenture and its attached schedules;

G. To have the Trustees of this Trust receive property, income, profits, interest, dividends or other

F. To promote family, and lend support to families associated with the Trust Estate;
Estate;

I. Keep the removal of a Trustee confidential if the Trustee so removed wishes the matter kept so. The Trustee

VI. The Minutes of this removal documents the Protector removal proceedings. K. Removal of a

V. All procedures to remove a Protector are confidential.

b) An illness which prevents the Protector from functioning.

a) Drug or alcohol addiction.

3) The Board of Trustees, based on satisfactory and enough evidence of unfit.

2) More than two-thirds of the Certificate Holders based on the TCUs held.

1) The Grantor with or without cause

IV. Removal of a Protector can be by:
resignation.

Failure to produce the necessary medical certification within a reasonable, named time, is an automatic demand the Protector get a certification of competency to continue to serve in the role of Protector.

III. If the removal of the Protector is for medical reasons, the Board of Trustees has the power to Grantor is unavailable to choose another.

II. The Board of Trustees has the authority to replace a Protector on death or resignation, only if the

I. The Board of Trustees keeps the right to fire or hire the Protector at his or her own discretion.

J. Removal of a Protector mother, father, or brothers and sisters, or anyone to whom the Protector may be loyal to.

II. The Protector cannot be a Beneficiary, nor can his or her spouse, children, sons or daughters-in-law,

I. The Protector is not a member of the Board of Trustees.

I. Limits of Trustees.

6) The Trust Protector's reason for the decision must be recorded, and is final and binding on the Board

f) Other deciding reasons relevant to the matter.

e) The most applicable course in alignment with the design of the Trust Grantor

d) The most suitable decision in alignment with the terms of the indenture

c) The least harmful course

b) The best circumstances for the Beneficiaries

a) The long range benefit to the Beneficiaries

5) The Trust Protector must settle the issue based on the following criteria:

Protector may intervene and call for a vote.

4) If the decision impacts the welfare of Beneficiaries and cash flow, or the Trust Estate's status, the decision be made, the vote cannot be tabled.

3) The TCU Holders may ask the Protector to cast the deciding vote. If the Beneficiaries request the

b) Call the Trust Protector to cast the deciding vote.

a) Table the matter, to decide later.

2) The Board of Trustees may choose to:
decision.

they are divided equally in their vote, thus unable to make a

be an equal number, and

b) If some of the Board of Trustee Members abstain from voting, causing the number willing to vote to decision;

a) If the Board of Trustees has an even number of Trustees, and they become deadlocked in a

1) This may occur on the following occasions:

I. No title to any of the Trust Estate assets or the income from it will vest in or to any Holder until

B. Title Only Vests at Termination

Board of Trustees.

II. There will not be more than 100 TCUs. These units can be fractionalized at the discretion of the are non-assessable and nontaxable, and nonnegotiable.

I. The Trust Estate is composed of 100 TCUs representing the corpus of the Trust Estate. These units

A. 100 TCUs for Exchange

Units (TCUs) Creation

II. Approval of the Trustees· choice by a majority of the Trust Certificate Holders. 12. Trust Certificate

I. Majority vote of the Trust Certificate Holders, excluding the Trustees.

O. Replacement of Trustees is by either of these methods:

any other dealings of the Trust.

IV. The Protector can receive any information or documentation of any transaction, correspondence, or evidence, or to report to him or her any events about the investigation.

III. He or she may ask the Board of Trustees and other suitable advisers to review circumstances and examining any of the Trustee·s conduct.

behavior only as it relates to the Trust. The Protector may ask support from the Certificate Holders in

II. Any Trust Certificate Holder or Beneficiary may ask for an investigation into a Trustee·s conduct and

I. Inform the Protector by giving him or her copies of relevant or periodic minutes.

N. Investigation of Trustee of the Trust.

I. The Protector is the natural counselor and mediator should any disputes arise between the members

M. Counseling Trust Members

the Trust Certificate Holders oppose appointing the new Trustee.

Certificate Holders, based on the number of TCUs each holds. Two-thirds must approve only if any of The Grantor may, then, appoint a new Trustee with the approval of no less than one third of the Trust remaining Trustee is unresponsive or part of the trouble.

IV. The Grantor becomes involved in removing a Trustee, if there is no other Trustee or the current

(3) To save the assets from compromise or threat of legal entanglement if the current Trustee remains.

(2) To prevent the Trust from needing a court-appointed Trustee.

(1) The Protector is nonresponsive or there is no Protector.

documentation to show the following added circumstances also exist:

III. The Grantor holds the power to remove a Trustee for violation of the Indenture if there is enough within this Trust Instrument.

II. The Grantor enters with others to remove a Trustee for just cause, and under the guidelines set forth Certificate Holders or Beneficiaries, will the Grantor help with the removal of a Trustee.

I. Only if the Protector does not perform his or her duties, in response to the request of the Trust

L. Grantor·s Power to Remove a Trustee

Grantor is unavailable to choose another.

III. The Board of Trustees has the authority to replace a Protector on death or resignation only if the (20) days, is a resignation.

Any refusal to provide the proper documentation within a named period of time, not to exceed Twenty certification from, at least, one doctor stating he or she is fit to serve as a Trustee.

II. Before dismissing a Trustee for medical reasons, the Protector can insist the Trustee get a Trustee should express this wish to the Protector or the Board of Trustees.

other Holders.

it, nor can they act with malicious intent against other members of the Trust group, such as officers and II. Holders must be in alignment with the overall intent and purpose of the Trust and cannot act against use distribution funds contrary to the purpose of the overall intent of the Trust.

I. Holders are required to be law abiding, to use Beneficial distribution for peaceful means, and to not
 F. TCU Holder Removal

the sole Certificate will be issued to the Grantor or the Grantor's lawful heirs.

If there are no remaining Holders alive, nor approved transfer instructions from the former Holders, then manner, on a proportional basis among the remaining Holders.

If no such approved transfer appears in the minutes, then the Board will transfer such Units, in like Trust Estate and issues a new Certificate according to such approved transfer.

such death to the Board, and receipt of the old Units, the Board notes the transfer in the records of this III. If an approved transfer at death from the Holder is found in the minutes, then on proper notice of and approved or not in the same manner as other requests for transfers.

or she wishes his or her units to be transferred to on his or her death. Such requests will be considered II. Any Holder may file a request with the Board of Trustees naming any person or persons to whom he in the records of the Trust Estate, and a new Certificate is issued to the new Holder.

Any such transfer is effective only after the old Units are surrendered to the Board, the transfer is noted has been approved by the Board of Trustees.

The trustees may consider any suggestion made by the previous Holder, transfer is not effective until it of Trustees the possible issuance, or not, of such Units as the Trustees will see fit.

surrender to the Board of Trustees all claims to such, leaving to the discretion of the Trust Estate Board

I. The legal Holder of any TCUs, as recorded in the records of this Trust Estate may, by proper writing,
 E. Transfer of TCUs

by the Trustees or the managing agents appointed by the Trustees.

by the Trustees and not by the TCUs Holders, the latter are not personally liable on the duties incurred

I. As this Trust Estate is a pass-through business Trust, where the final control of the business is held

D. No Personal Liability

· Name of Family:

· Name of Ancestor:

· Name of Family:

· Name of Ancestor:

records of the Trust Estate document those descendants are listed on proper schedules within the an

an

C. Inheritance of TCUs (Expand this section. Be specific.)

them to any greater rights than that to which the former Unit Holder was entitled.

transferees to demand a division of the assets of this Trust Estate; nor any special account; nor entitle

III. The death of a Holder or transfer by a Holder does not entitle heirs, legal representatives, or entitle the Holder to any management power or rights.

II. Neither its income nor its principal will be liable for any debts of any Holder. Holding Units does not terminating the Trust Estate.

Distributions to Holders of Trust Certificate Units are in reference only to the pure Trust, also known as Trust.

F. TCUs interest will not entitle the Beneficiaries to take part in all distributions from the profits of the the Trust Beneficiaries.

Board of Trustees for the protection, well-being, health, welfare, care, education, security, and safety of The Trust will provide such encouragement in the best interests of the Trust at the discretion of the honorable values and concepts, and to honor privacy.

E. Beneficiaries are encouraged to act in accordance with the Trust purposes of stewardship, to foster agrees to the purposes of the Trust.

Beneficial interest, whether in the form of distributed profits or provisions from the Trust, a Beneficiary

D. Beneficiary status is designated by receipt of TCUs as issued by the Board of Trustees. For all are the same as TCUs.

Trusts. The Beneficiaries will receive Trust Certificate Units belonging only to the managed Trust. UBIs

C. This Board of Trustees is responsible for the Beneficiaries listed on suitable schedules of managed

B. Holders of Trust Certificate Units are not Exchangers, and have given no assets in exchange.

A. TCUs are shown on Certificates of Beneficial Interest.

13. Beneficial Interest

mail, return receipt requested.

(4) Should termination of the Beneficial interest be proper, then the Holder must be told by certified involved in crime. Enough circumstantial evidence may be enough to remove a Holder.

money to hire the best lawyers, it is up to the Board of Trustees to decide whether the Holder is

(3) Because of the political entanglements of the courts, and the power of those who have enough

(2) Consult with the Trust Protector in all considerations to remove a Holder.

the warning.

with crime, whether convicted or not. The Holder has the right to answer any allegations, or respond to

(1) First a warning must be given to the Holder about removal, unless the Holder has been involved

VII. Procedure for Holder Removal

priority.

caused difficulties from those who have been supportive. Those who have been supportive have

VI. It is also not required of the Board of Trustees to take Trust funds for the benefit of one who has necessary training, healing, or other support for their benefit.

Holders must show a sincere desire to improve before the Board of Trustees is required to provide the Trustees to allow them to grow and develop.

V. It is the intent of the Trust that all Holders receive enough support from the Trust funds and Board of Trustees how to control the funds to the Holder in accordance with circumstances.

(2) Beneficial income temporarily suspended, and specific determination made by the Board of

(1) Beneficial income placed in a special account to accumulate for rehabilitation.

IV. Holders convicted of harmful activities can be removed from Beneficial status or have: complex.

III. Holders cannot set up a business that is in competition with any business set up by the overall reasonable, or on proof of misconduct.

II. A reasonable request for an investigation is founded on circumstances that can be believed to be

I. Malicious intent includes spreading lies, as well as overt and covert acts to bring harm to another.

this Trust Estate. Examples of the intent of this paragraph follow:

This provision does not apply to a reasonable request for an investigation into the conduct of officers of

If a TCU Holder has more than five years experience in the workforce, and the Board of Trustees feel Beneficiary is refunded for any tuition and books they originally paid for from funds earned.

IV. The Grantor believes experience (is more important than) a college education. Therefore, a fund, used to buy a condominium, and applied to other benefits for him or her?)

III. (Explain what is done with funds due to the Beneficiary beyond the one month rent. Is it put into a the time this distribution is delayed.

full distribution, unless for serious considerations of the Board of Trustees because of known matters at

II. After the Beneficiary reaches the age of Thirty (30), the Beneficiary becomes eligible for his or her the area in which they live, plus any yearly gift distribution.

Rewrite this) receives more than an average of one-month's rent for a modest one bedroom apartment in of (30?

not dependent on distribution from this Trust Estate, no Beneficiary (TCU or UBI Holder) under the age

I. Because it is the wish of the Grantor for Beneficiaries to gain enough experience in life so they are

K. Restrictions, Responsibilities and Options audit.

IV. The cost of the audit is to be split equally between this Trust Estate and whomever requests the whether an audit is necessary or another course of action is suitable.

be brought before the Protector first for review. The Protector will then review the details and decide

III. If the request for an audit is because the Beneficiary(ies) distrusts the Trustees, then the matter is to without any intent to act contrary to the purpose of this Trust Estate.

The auditor must pledge to keep the information within this Trust private, and must be of a fair mind records can be examined.

II. The Board of Trustees must approve the credentials of those selected to audit the records before the a Beneficiary.

I. Beneficiaries may ask for an audit of the Trust records of only the Trust on which they are named as

J. Audits Requested by the Beneficiaries

Each Beneficiary is expressly restricted from any of the above.

process of proceedings to the fullest extent permissible by law.

orders, decrees, levies, attachments, garnishments and executions, and other legal or equitable unless otherwise provided, and will be free from the claims of creditors and other claimants and from

The income and principal of the Trust is not subject in any manner to transfer by operation of law, assignment of any Beneficiary by anticipation of any part of the income or principal.

I. The Trustee is not to recognize any transfer, encumbering, mortgage, pledge hypothecation, order, or that significant opportunity qualify for consideration by the Board of Trustees.

Beneficiaries need to be accountable for their actions. Therefore, true family emergencies as well as

The Grantor believes Trust funds are for aiding those to achieve greater abilities and talents, and the in frivolous or speculative activities that dissipate their assets.

Beneficiary. Trust funds do not exist to bail out Beneficiaries who squander their assets or are involved

The Board of Trustees first decides such a pay-out is in the best interest of both the Trust and the right to provide Trust funds to a Beneficiary besides those received through normal Trust distributions.

H. In a serious family or medical emergency, or other similar situation, the Board of Trustees has the Holder of Units of Beneficial Interest (UBIs) as listed in the Trust register.

G. Beneficial distribution is controlled by the Board of Trustees through the appropriate Holder or Trustees.

asset holding Trust, managed by this Trust Estate, and proper distribution formulas set by the Board of

V. Without adequate reason, failure to documents that include false statements

IV. Distorting facts or making false allegations, and covering up actual events; using or create Trust business.

III. Removing the Trust books from Trust premises, or the area allocated as the place dedicated to the

II. Taking Trust property and using it for personal gain, personal usage, and/or without authorization.

Trust account, or any other misappropriation of funds where the Beneficiaries get less than deserved.

I. Mishandling of funds, payments without authorization, payments of personal expenses out of the evidence of or any other substantial verification of the following:

B. The First Trustee may terminate a Co-Trustee for violations of Trust with at least one witness of, leadership responsibility within the Trust Estate and holds the largest amount of TCUs.

II. All Trustees have the title of Trustee, but are distinguished from the First Trustee who has the other Trustees will be ·Co-Trustees·.

I. The Board of Trustees consists of at least two (2) Trustees; one shall be the ·First Trustee·, and the

A. Number of Trustees

15. Trustees

of the Grantor, either through a Pour-Over Will, insurance, or other arrangements.

I. This Trust Estate is not responsible for funeral arrangements. All arrangements are the responsibility

A. Funeral and Death Responsibilities

14. Obligations to the Grantor called on.

The arrangements made are in accordance with the Trust Protector and the religious organization thus members for assistance.

religious organization who sustains a court procedure within its definition of rules of conduct for its

d. Should the certificate holder require a hearing, the Trust Protector has the option to call upon a court of law without the involvement or approval of the Trust Protector.

c. No TCU Holder or UBI Holder responsible to this Trust group has the right to bring any matter to a or has the authority by his rights under this Trust Instrument to decide the matter.

b. The Trust Protector has the authority to decide proper proceedings regarding legal status or action, brought to the attention of the Trust Protector to resolve the matter.

a. All considerations of a lawsuit or any legal proceeding in which this Trust is involved must first be in their duties, will no longer receive a distribution according to the decision of the Trust Protector.

of this Trust, or who instigates disruption within the Trust group causing the Trustees to be interrupted

(1) No contest: Any Beneficiary that sues the Trust to terminate it, challenges the validity of any portion

VIII. Lawsuits

Apprenticeship, on the job training, college, university.

(1) (Fill in the list of optional educational requirements for beneficiaries) i.e Trade School,

VII. Specific educational opportunities are encouraged in the following areas:

in this profession. These studies are paid for by the Board of Trustees.

accounting. It is not required that any Beneficiary receive a license or become professionally engaged

VI. It is the wish of the Grantor that all Beneficiaries receive an education in bookkeeping and depending on circumstances.

V. Vocational Training can be supplemented by this Trust Estate or paid for in full by this Trust Estate, expenses.

the Beneficiary is mature, this Trust Estate may pay for tuition and books as well as extra living

I. Adverse

E. Adverse and Independent Trustees interests.

holds his or her own security and best

(6) Have a sincere interest in the welfare of the estate, realizing that the success of the Trust Estate

(5) Live a stable lifestyle; the Trustee needs to be available to administer the Trust Estate.

and others who may attack or seek to do harm to this Trust.

attorneys, the Internal Revenue Service

(4) Be assertive when necessary and have the ability to stand up to other people, especially to judges,

(3) Be willing to learn the difference between Statutory and Common Law.

protection of this Trust Estate.

lawyer whose priority is the

(2) Have a legal inclination, some paralegal training, an interest in or training in legal research, or be a

(1) Have business acumen and an understanding of accounting principles and procedures.

IV. The Trustee(s) should possess some or all of the following qualifications:

the Trust Estate as described in Section X. Trust Estate Purpose.

of the Trust Estate. A Trustee cannot be engaged in any business that would be contrary to the goals of

III. A Trustee cannot be related to the Protector, and cannot have conflicting interests with the purpose Estate.

scope or intent of that person's functions, powers or activities must not be in conflict with this Trust must be named individually and be individually responsible for the Trusteeship offered and the nature,

If the succeeding Trustee is a member of another Trust Estate, or Trustee of another Trust, he or she identification to be used with financial institutions.

II.

I. Any Trustee appointed or succeeding may be a domestic or foreign natural person who has proper

D. Qualifications

more than two (2) Trustees, then a majority of two-thirds (2/3) is required to act for this Trust Estate.

III. All decisions must be made by a unanimous vote when there are only two (2) Trustees. If there are in writing to all the Co-trustees, shall not be liable for the consequences of any decision by the majority.

decision of the majority of the Trustees, as the case may be, if his or her dissent is expressed promptly through absence or inability, or a dissenting Co-trustee who shall have joined in carrying out the

If there are more than three (3) Trustees, a Co-trustee (one who is not the first Trustee) failing to act which a majority of Trustees agree.

II.

I. The Trustees may take any action with respect to this Trust, whether discretionary or otherwise, on

C. Majority

(2) Voluntarily resign

(1) To have 30 days to respond

Co-Trustee must have the opportunity to

VI. Written correspondence of the facts of the termination must precede the action of termination. The

(5) Distressing or attacking Trust Beneficiaries participate in any Trust business for one (1) year

(3) Take care of Beneficiary needs in a timely manner (4) Be present at any Trust functions or to

(2) Respond to Trust needs

(1) Consistently attend Trust meetings

C. Co-trustee

VI. Counsel

V. Steward, Caretaker

IV. Treasurer

III. Secretary

II. General Manager

I. Protector, only if the Grantor is incapable of choosing another may from time-to-time be necessary:

B. The Trustees have the option of appointing the following Officers and any other additional officers as specified in contracts or acceptances applicable to each of their positions.

Trustees. The duties and responsibilities of the Officers of this Trust Estate to the Trustees are Officers of the Trust Estate are appointed by the First Trustee and approved by a majority of the 16. Officers of the Trust Estate

II. The property of the Trust Estate is held in joint tenancy by the Board of Trustees.
property and affairs.

I. The Trustees shall exercise collectively the exclusive management and control of the Trust Estate
G. Trustee Management and Control of Trust Estate

Successor Trustee without the necessity of executing or filing any papers or any further act.
depository of the property comprising the Trust Estate or income thereof becomes the same for such

VI. Upon the appointment of such Successor Trustee any attorney-in-fact, agent, custodian or the option of selecting other Successor Trustees.

circumstances not foreseen when they were selected as Successor Trustees, then the Grantor retains Should none of the Successor Trustees accept the position offered, or be qualified due to replacement. The Board of Trustees is then to approve the acceptance.

V. A Successor Trustee, so named within the Trust instrument, shall first be considered for

IV. The First Trustee is not subordinate or related to the Grantor.
first Trustee.

III. Should the Grantor not be available to select the first Trustee, then the Trust Protector selects the the Grantor shall choose the First Trustee. The newly selected Trustee appoints the Co-trustee(s).
Trustee shall be elected to the Board of Trustees. Should the entire Board of Trustees become vacant, II. Upon the death, resignation, or removal from the Board of Trustees an additional or Successor reviewed no less than every two (2) years.

I. The Successor Trustees shall always be on file in the minutes of the Trust Estate. This shall be
F. Additional or Successor Trustees related, and is not required to have 33%.

III. If there is an Independent Trustee operating as the Adverse Trustee, then the Co-trustee, can be

(2) Shall be vested with no less than ten percent (10%) of the Trust.

(1) May or may not be related by blood or marriage to the Grantor.

II. Independent Trustee

Trust, and gives the Trust Estate its status as irrevocable.

(3) An adverse Trustee is required to insure the legal classification of this Trust Estate as an irrevocable or more than 25% of the TCUs.

(2) If not related by blood, or marriage, the adverse Trustee must possess the largest amount of Units
33% of the TCUs.

(1) If related by marriage, or is a brother or sister of the Grantor, The Trustee must possess more than the official seal used by the Executive Secretary.

VII. If the Board of Trustees believes it necessary to have a Trust Estate Seal in its name, this Seal is witnesses and signs minutes and resolutions of the Board of Trustees.

VI. The Executive Secretary attends all meetings of the Board of Trustees, records the resolutions, and of Trustees.

The Executive Secretary and the secretary can be the same person only with full approval of the Board by the General Manager to work for the business in the day-to-day routine affairs.

V. The position as Executive Secretary to this Trust Estate is not the same position as a secretary hired have a custodial account.

IV. The Secretary can sign checks, at the discretion of the Trustees, on Trust Estate accounts and can

III. The Secretary receives training in his or her responsibilities.

Trustee, who is subject to the limits within this Indenture.

II. The Secretary has no authority to release information to anyone without the approval of the First correspondence minutes, assembling, formatting and typing documents.

I. The Executive Secretary works as a contractor to the Trust Estate and is responsible for

E. Executive Secretary

Trustees. The General Manager can have a custodial account.

II. This person will be familiar with the business of the Trust Estate and serves as an adviser to the negotiating, and dealing with financial institutions.

operation of the business. Duties are outlined in his or her contract and include hiring, firing,

I. The General Manager works as a contractor to the Trust Estate and is responsible for the everyday resume his or her duties.

D. General Manager

appoints a new First Trustee unless circumstances indicate it is better to wait until the First Trustee can

VI. If the First Trustee is unavailable for more than ninety (90) days, then the Board of Trustees

(4) Approval by a majority of the Trustees.

(90) days.

(3) Where the First Trustee has requested a temporary leave of absence, not to extend beyond ninety his or her duties.

(2) Where two (2) independent physicians advised the First Trustee should be temporarily relieved of located by telephone, fax or other reasonable methods of communication.

(1) Emergency, where the Board of Trustees must act immediately and the First Trustee cannot be

V. The Co-trustee assumes the position of temporary First Trustee upon the following conditions:

(3) Willingness to assume the responsibility

(2) Experience with the immediate needs of the Trust Estate

(1) Seniority

the duties of the First Trustee:

IV. If there is more than (1) Co-trustee, the following criteria determines which Co-trustee shall assume unavailable, ill, or incapacitated until another First Trustee is selected.

III. A Co-trustee shall assume the responsibilities of the First Trustee should the First Trustee be the public.

This includes the welfare of the Holders, as well as the administration of any assets for the benefit of

II. The Co-trustees shall all the specific duties, but especially relate to charitable causes and concerns. year.

I. A Co-trustee signs minutes and financial documents over $50,000 committing this Trust Estate in one may approve liquidation of assets for adding to these working funds.

F. Funds accruing to the Treasury of this Trust Estate forms its working funds. The Board of Trustees market value and for adequate and full consideration.

transaction, or under specific Grantor to purchase property or to sell property, but always at the fair Trustees other than such legal interest as would a stranger to this Trust Estate in the particular Under no circumstances does the Grantor have any interest in investments made by the Board of E.

corpus and its income.

D. The Board has a general power of appointment consistent with the terms of this Indenture over the C. If a termination occurs, the remaining corpus and income is delivered to the Unit Holders of record. the Holders as income distributees.

the Grantor (except to the extent the Grantor is a Holder). This applies to any other people other than The Trustees must avoid any action or decision causing the income of this Trust Estate to be taxed to the indenture or minutes interpreting the same. B.

A. The Board of Trustees has no power to take any action contrary to our inconsistent with the terms of 17. Trustee Responsibilities and Restraints account.

II. On approval of the Board of Trustees, the Caretaker may have a Trust Estate custodial checking outside, and the ongoing management of all Trust Estate lands.

I. The Caretaker works as a contractor and is responsible for keeping buildings, both inside and H. Caretaker checking account.

III. On approval of the Board of Trustees, the Steward can have his or her own Trust Estate custodial accounts, arrangements for large social functions.

II. The Steward's duties include supervision of the kitchen and the servants, management of household

I. The Steward works as a contractor and is responsible for the affairs of an estate.

G. Steward

the Executive Secretary will be responsible to provide reports.

VI. If the Trust does not have an immediate need for a Treasurer, then either the General Manager or

V. Certifies any necessary financial reporting as may be needed to conduct business. need for an accounting is needed.

IV. Provide all financial accounts as itemized above are available to the Board of Trustees whenever a These records are kept in a manner to enable proper tax reporting.

business transactions, including accounts of assets, liabilities, receipts, pay outs, gains and losses.

III. The Treasurer keeps and preserves acceptable and correct accounts of the Trust's properties and minutes or in agreed on procedures.

He or she will also disburse the funds of the Trust as directed by the Board of Trustees and record in Board of Trustees.

the name of the Trust in bank Trust accounts, Trust companies, or other depositories selected by the

II. The Treasurer is responsible for all funds and securities of the Trust, and deposits all such funds in assets and finances of this Trust Estate.

I. The Treasurer works as a contractor under the direction of the Board of Trustees to manage the F. Treasurer documents approving the sale, transfer or purchase of real property by this Trust Estate.

VIII. The signature of the Executive Secretary, and if appropriate the Trust Estate Seal, is required on

F. The power to demolish improvements.

E. The power to improve, change, and alter.

D. The power to lease or rent.

and grant options.

C. The power to buy, sell, lease, exchange, deed, transfer, assign, hypothecate, invest, loan, borrow,

B. The power to hold, manage or gain unproductive property for development.

A. The power to hold, manage or gain productive property.

the Trust Estate, except as otherwise limited or restricted by the other terms of this Indenture:

The Trustees will have the following powers about personal property, real property and the assets of interest is grounds for termination.

18. Trustee Powers

consideration, and the Trustee must extract him or herself from the conflict or resign, or this conflict of

Therefore, if the Trustee finds him or herself in a position of conflict, the Holders receive primary to exclude from consideration his or her own advantages and the welfare of third persons.

L. The Trustee owes a duty to the Holders to manage the affairs of the Trust solely for the Holders, and the corresponding Trust certificates.

or Income Beneficiary (hereinafter referred to as 'Unit Holder') from their respective unit register(s) and void to demand funds or assets that belong solely to this Trust Estate, the Trustees may remove any Holder

If a Unit Holder hires any person or organization(s) to dissolve this Indenture, or if any Unit Holder sues K.

for services, depending on the cash flow of the Trust. This is negotiable on a yearly basis.

J. Trustees are paid a percentage of distribution, and if applicable an hourly or periodic remuneration stocks, bonds, commodities.

animals, such as racehorses, or breeding animals; collections or fine art; start up business ventures; residential or commercial real estate; farm or vacant land; lending and other profitable banking;

Trustees to decide, by current trends and events, which are the best investment arenas to follow:

The Grantor gives the following areas as example only, and relies on the wisdom of the Board of areas where assets may appreciate or where an income flow is assured to continue this Trust Estate.

Therefore, the Trustees are instructed to make prudent and wise investments in a minimum of four (4)

Beneficiaries from the ups and downs of life.

I. The Trustees must follow the policy of diversification of investments. A broad asset base protects the this Trust Estate.

fiduciary capacity provided such does not adversely affect the legality of either the business done or more individual Trustees, with suitable references to their countries, or other similar circumstances, the Board is allowed to do business in the name of one or

H. If doing business directly under this Trust Estate is not believed to be legal because of laws in other executives, the General Manager, and like people while on this Trust Estate business.

decisions about all such matters will be final. The Board pays expenses incurred by Trustees, officers,

If and to the extent the income may be lacking for such they will be paid out of the principal. Board the Estate and will be paid out of the income from it.

debts arising out of the maintenance, and administration of this Trust Estate. They will be charged on

G. The Board of Trustees pays all legal and lawfully due taxes, assessments, charges, debts, bills and specific purposes necessary to the use of this Trust Estate.

either unsecured or directly or indirectly secured. It may also appoint third parties to hold funds for

The Board will, as it believes proper and necessary, provide for working funds through any borrowing,

- Y. The power to buy securities, both foreign and domestic, and gain stock positions within international extension.
- X. The power to continue mortgage investments after maturity either with or without renewal or managers, agents and others for services rendered.
- W. The power to pay reasonable compensation to Trustees, consultants, caretakers, employees,
- V. The power to delegate authority to trustees, agents, caretakers or employees.
distribute, diversify, change, liquidate, or otherwise run the business.
- U. The power to incorporate, enter partnerships, associations or other joint ventures, perform,
- T. The power to deal with or secure patents, copyrights, trademarks or the like.
- S. The power to deal with title and title insurance problems.
- R. The power to hold an undivided interest.
- Q. The power to set up and keep reserves in the event of a natural or man-made disaster.
- XVII. Nursing home and long-term care
- XVI. Psychiatric care
- XV. Weekly support groups
- XIV. Homeopathy
- XIII. Ayurveda medicine
- XII. Stress reduction therapy
- XI. Chiropractic care
- (2) Spiritual self-discovery
- (1) Recuperation
- X. Retreats for
- IX. Emotional and psychological therapy
- VIII. Hypnotherapists/regression therapists
- VII. Oriental medicine
- VI. Hands-on healers
- V. Massage and deep-tissue bodywork
- IV. Payments for the services of alternative healers who may not fall under insurance categories
- III. Medical insurance
- II. Vitamins, minerals and food supplements
- I. Prescriptions
only.
- P. The power to manage or pay for health-related care or benefits for the members of this Trust Estate catastrophic insurance.
damage, fire casualty and extended coverage, income protection insurance, life insurance and
- O. The power to carry insurance of all kinds; including, but not limited to: personal liability and property
- N. The power to Dedicate Trust Estate properties for public use.
- M. The power to employ employees, consultants, caretakers, property managers and other agents.
- L. The power to set up and keep reserves for depreciation.
- K. The power to seek zoning, rezoning, variance, or nonconforming use permits.
and to release the same.
- J. The power to create servitudes, grant easements and rights-of-way, impose conditions and limits,
- I. The power to fulfill covenants, agreements, contracts or credits.
- H. The power to subdivide, encumber, partition, and to adjust boundaries.
- G. The power to abandon as worthless.
-

responsibility for assets in that jurisdiction.

A. A Resident Trustee is one domiciled in a country where Trust assets are secured and who takes

21. Resident Trustee Termination or claim by a third-party outsider.

personal. The Trustee will have no right of indemnification against the Trust Estate because of a lawsuit

B. Such liability in those cases by the Trustees is intended to be representative in nature and not settlement, indebtedness or the like about such transactions.

by their signature, all such aggrieved third-parties must look solely to the Trust Estate for any remedy, they were doing it in behalf of the Trust Estate, or the words ·as Trustee, and not personally· appeared on it. If the action taken was within the scope of their authority and they clearly marked on the document that action taken about this Trust Estate.

A. The Trustees of this Trust Estate are not personally liable to any third-party for any contract made or opinion or advice from legal counsel or Trust Estate accountant.

20. Third Parties

any option or advice presented by a consultant or any executive Trustee to the Trustee, or by any

F. No liability accrues for losses resulting to the Trust Estate from any action taken by the Trustees for willful default or gross negligence as referred to in Paragraph A of this Section.

selected by the Trustees to carry out specific duties and needs contained in this Indenture, absent

E. No liability accrues for any or default in the transaction of Trust business by any agent properly from that Trustee's own bad faith or gross negligence as referred to in Paragraph A of this Section.

D. No liability accrues to any Trustee for any act or default by any Co-trustee, unless the liability results payment or distribution.

and without notice or knowledge of any change in the conditions or status of any person receiving such

C. No liability accrues for any payment or distribution needed in this Indenture that is made in good faith investments made, provided the Trustees act in good faith in making such investments.

B. No liability accrues for any depreciation to the value of assets or other losses caused by any a negative impact on the Trust Estate.

behavior akin to one who is drunk, or irresponsible, unlawful, or immoral conduct by the Trustee leaving as is occasioned by gross negligence such as deliberately acting to undo the financial structure,

No liability accrues for any loss or expense suffered by the Trust Estate, except such loss or expense is provided by law, with the following exceptions:

A.

The Trustees will be subject to that standard in performing their duties in behalf of this Trust Estate as

19. Trustees Duties and Limited Liability

exchange any property of the Trust by substituting other property of an equivalent value.

investments or reinvestments; or by vetoing proposed investments or reinvestments; or to reacquire or

or other securities of the Trust Estate; to control the investment of the Trust Estate either by directing

No person other than the Trustees have or exercise the power to vote or direct the voting of any shares

CC.

determine income and corpus.

AA. The power to withhold income temporarily to build up the corpus of the Trust. BB. The power to have contractual agreements.

Z. The power to prudently buy long and sell short options, futures, and positions of securities which and domestic markets.

because a competent Trustee has a much deeper and more thorough knowledge of Trust decisions,
B. It is preferred and desired by the Grantor that a Trustee represent this Trust to preserve privacy, and
IV. The full Board of Trustee supports the Trustee who will represent the Trust.
III. He or she wants to represent this Trust, and is not pressured to do so.
II. He or she has adequate experience with court procedures as determined by the Trust Protector.
represented.
I. A Trustee has a working knowledge of the law pertaining to both Trusts and the issues to be following conditions:
A. Trustees are authorized to represent this Trust without a licensed attorney or lawyer under the

23. Legal Representation of the Trust

III. Negligence.
II. Action that was harmful to the Trust or the reputation of the Trust or its members;
I. Irresponsibility;
Trustee-s:
or for defending the corpus will be paid by the Trust, unless it is proven the matter was caused by the
B. All legal fees in which the Trustee engages for the benefit of a Beneficiary, or group of Beneficiaries, Duties and Limited Liability of the Trustees.
such loss or expense caused by the Trustee-s willfulness or gross negligence as referred to in XX. A.
A. The Trustee will not be personally liable for any loss or expense suffered by the Trust Estate, except the Grantor, as named in XI. E. Grantor-s Power to Remove a Trustee.

22. Trustee Liability for Negligence

C. Any Trustee may be dismissed by the Protector, as named in XI.C.1. Powers of the Protector, or by the Trust Situs by military forces.
the Trust Estate are declared to be or considered to be enemies of any foreign government invading
(4) The declaration or existence of war in consequence of which the citizens, nationals or residents of The new Trustee will be entitled to remuneration calculated according to its scale of fees in force.
Trustee.

the Protector dismisses the Trustee, the Board of Trustee will immediately appoint the successor
This applies to any contract about the Trust Estate created or to the Trust Estate fund, in which event
(3) The limit, suspension or abrogation in whole or in part of the Trust made up by this indenture.
of the Trust Estate fund.

(2) To restrict in any way the use, investment or distribution the assets comprising the Trust Estate.

(1) The acquisition, expropriation or confiscation of any of
as follows:

government, or having in fact or de jure jurisdiction of the Trust situs. The purpose or effect of which is
I. Passing any law or any action by or by any government authority, agency, or officer of a foreign
He or she is divested of title to the capital and income of the Trustee Estate:
act as such Trustee.

referred to as ·Resident Trustee-) so that the Resident Trustee ceases to be the Trustee hereunder and to resident within the situs of this Trust Estate as Trustee hereof for the time being (hereinafter collectively circumstances terminates the tenure of any Trust, company, or person incorporated, domiciled or At any time before termination of the Trust Estate, the happening of any of the following events or B.

effective administration of this Trust by protecting third-parties who are relying upon the actions of the
A. The purpose of this action does not add to the powers of the Trustees, but simplifies and speeds the
25. Third parties relying on the actions by the Trustees
this Trust Estate.

rely on such letters or certificates as being the true accurate state of affairs for the current Trustees of All banks, security exchange organizations, Trust companies, lending institutions, or third-parties, may II. Any letter or form may be used, and will be signed and certified by at least one other Trustee.
names recorded by the Trust Estate record keeper in the Trust records.

the validity of the identity of the current Trustees of the Trust, all current Trustees of the Trust have their
I. For protecting banks, Trust companies, lending institutions, or third parties who need an assurance of
E. Recording Names of Trustees minutes, and this will be notarized with the signatures of the entire Board of Trustees.

D. If a Trustee leaves without a letter of resignation, then a report of such event will be entered into the resignation as the true state of affairs for this Trust Estate.

Any third-party to whom a letter of resignation is shown may rely on the validity of that letter of The letter of resignation will be upheld by the Trust Estate record keeper in the Trust Estate records.
when such resignation will be effective.

resignation will specify the date of resignation, not less than thirty (30) days after giving such notice,
C. The resignation must be notarized and delivered to at least one (1) other Trustee. This letter of Board of Trustees.

The resigning Trustee or Co-trustee remains liable until the status as requested is delivered to the verbal or written status of his or her Trustee duties so the Trust may carry on smoothly.

However, according to the wishes of the Board of Trustees, the resigning Trustee must give either Trustees.

court and without prior judicial accounting unless this accounting is demanded by the Board of
B. Any Trustee, Co-trustee, or successor Trustee under this Trust Estate may resign without leave of Section of this Indenture.

A. This section is in conjunction with Trust Protector Responsibilities detailed in the Trust Protector 24. Trustee Resignation and Appointments that a judge or magistrate may suggest to solidify or define this format.

G. The Board of Trustees and the Trust Protector shall be involved in any court protocols or processes and Indenture as proof of the Grantor's intent.

F. This Section, "Legal Representation of the Trust," may be excerpted from the Declaration of Contract competent entity to handle the circumstances.

attorney, or the Trustees, so long as it conforms and clearly represents the Trust as a viable and

E. The legal paperwork required to proceed with a legal challenge may be created by a paralegal, Board of Trustees approves of the choice of Co-trustee, or another Trustee may be a Co-trustee.

D. The Trustee may have a Co-trustee, who may be a license attorney if the Trust Protector and the is the best course of action.

II. A statement from the Trust Protector concerning this decision and why it concerning representation should this matter become an issue.

supports the decision of the Trustee to represent this Trust is to be available for the court to review

I. A complete set of Minutes concerning the circumstances and the reason why the Board of Trustees

C. Should a Trustee chose to represent the Trust:

background and actions than any third-party representative.

A. It is stressed and reaffirmed here that in all matters about this Trust Estate the Trustees, officers and 27. Privacy

outside the Trust Estate.

extracted for creating bank resolutions, and other such purposes, and presented to a person or entity

G. When necessary and suitable by the Board of Trustees, a specific minute or portion of it may be United States of America.

618 (1886); Silverthorn v U.S. 251 385 (1920); and the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution for the and records are NOT subject to review or subpoenas duces tecum, and so held in Boyd v U.S., 116 U.S.
The Trustees for the Trust Estate have all the power necessary to carry out their Trust and their books and suitable officers of the Trust Estate, as shown by the following decision of the U.S.
I.

Supreme Court:

disclosed by anyone. Also, all minutes are beyond the reach of any person, other than the Trustees

F. All minutes of this Trust are protected, to remain private and they are not to be loaned, borrowed, or the Trust Estate. The Trustees have the right to record later.

E. Minutes are to document activities and must be accurately and consistently recorded for protecting authority to take such action under the terms of the Indenture.

D. No action for the Trust will be taken except on the unanimous concurrence of all the Trustees having so.

any special meeting, and the Trustees are required to discount and resist any external pressure to do
No one, other than the Trustees, has the authority to request or compel the Trustees to hold regular or the unanimous consent of all Trustees.

C. The Trustees may also provide in the minutes for holding special meetings, which may be called by to be held at stated and specifically determined times and intervals with or without notice.

B. In minutes of their meetings, the Board of Trustees may schedule and provide for regular meetings opportunities to promote cash flow and diversification.

In these meetings, the Board of Trustees is to be continually reviewing and expanding investment Trust functions and responsibilities.

education for all Trust Officers, and to develop plans and methods to educate all Trust members about

The purpose of the Board of Trustees meeting is to continually increase the trust administration

A. This Trust Estate will have no less than two (2) Board of Trustees meetings per year.

26. Meetings and Minutes held harmless by the Trust Estate if they so rely.

action by any other party for participation in a breach of this Trust Estate, and such third-parties will be

No third-party needs to read any other section of this Indenture to be protected from any possible prying eyes of outsiders.

C. This section protects the privacy and confidentiality of the other portions of this Indenture from the granted and approved in this indenture.

Such written action by the Trustees binds this Trust Estate and its assets as fully as if such action was by the Trustees.

organizations, title companies, lending institutions or others, may fully rely on any written action taken

Such third parties, including but not limited to banks, Trust companies, security exchange taken or considered by the Trustees of this Trust Estate.

B. Third-parties are not subject to any duty to inquire into the authority for, or propriety of, any actions applied toward diversified high risk ventures during the lifetime of the Settlor. It is understood the B. No more than Fifty-five percent (55%) of this Trust Estate, or less than Twenty-five Percent (25%) is depletion.
Trustees.

must apply the principle of investment diversification or setting up reserves for depreciation and

A. In the exercise of the powers by the Trustee dealing with property of the Trust Estate, the Trustees

29. Power to Deal with Trust Estate Property

a Trust as recognized by courts of law.

excess remuneration for performance of duties as this is looked on as a violation of the implied oath of value as is settled by the Trustees to be the fair value of that part or portion; or the Trustees may and earnings, or to divide distributions, for delivery or transfer of any part or any portion of it, at such conditions otherwise set forth in this Contract and Trust Estate Indenture, to pay out principal to Holders The Board of Trustees has the power, exercisable only according to the terms, standards and earnings.

B. The Trustees receive a small percentage of the Holder distribution and are cautioned against taking convert the Trust Estate or any portion of it into cash and give out the net earnings to the Holders.

A. The Board of Trustees has the sole discretionary power over this Trust Estate, its assets and

28. Power to Distribute Principal any significant information about the internal workings of the Trust.

IV. An employment agreement or an independent contract agreement signed before the person is given

III. The Trust Oath of Privacy is agreed to and signed by the prospective person.

II. An offer is made to the prospective person.

I. Discussion with the Board of Trustees recorded in the Trust minutes before an offer is made.

or an independent contract. The basic procedure to follow is:

the Board of Trustees must approve of the person before he or she is given an employment agreement, E. When people, involved in Trust documents or sensitive materials, are invited to join the Trust Estate, jurisdiction.

and the common law privacy rights available in the United States of America and every other applicable U.S.C. 552(a), the Fourth and Fifth Amendments to the Constitution for the United States of America, This indenture and all Trust Estate business is kept private, protected by the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 D.

above.

of the Board of Trustees given at the regular or special meeting of the Board of Trustees as set forth the operations of this Trust Estate will be disclosed to any third-party, except on formal written approval No document, record, bank account, or any other written information dealing with the internal affairs, or C.

Trustees for processing at the next scheduled meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Trust Estate, either individually or collectively, in writing by the inquirer and submitted to the Board of

B. All inquiries may be directed to any of the Trustees or other officers, employees or contractors of the Estate.

responsibilities held within this Trust Estate, or any fictitious name, also known as a D.B.A. of this Trust information for the Trust Estate to any other Trustee, Officer or Staff Member, unless such person ·needs to know· such private and secret must not be revealed to any person outside this Trust Estate; and not even within the The Oath of Privacy is in full force, and the information mentioned in the Oath of Privacy is considered others involved in this Trust Estate are bound by the Path of Privacy which they signed.

I.

B. Distributions

deductions for the depreciation of Trust Estate property.

V. The Trustees, acting for the Trust Estate and for the Trust Estate, not the TCUs Holders, will take all should the Board of Trustees believe this necessary and prudent.

IV. Increase in Trust value is shared at least yearly, whether or not actually distributed.

Holders, except on written demand. The Trustees may, however, make an accounting to the Holders,

The Trustees are not required and need not make any formal accounting to, or on behalf of, the reasonable time, on written notice to the Secretary or appointed Record Keeper.

III. The Holders may inspect any of the books, documents, or other records of the Trust Estate at any Trust.

be delegated to a bookkeeper or accountant outside the Trust Estate who understands Common Law

II. The Trustee keeps the books, records, documents and accounts of the Trust Estate. This role may protection of this Trust Estate.

I. The Trustees pay all the expenses incurred in the administration, management, conversation and

A. Responsibilities

33. Accounting

members of the Trust Estate.

B. Any reason for termination must be grounded in sound reasoning for the overall benefit of all

Holders, and all parties having interest in the Trust Estate, vested or contingent.

A. This Trust Estate may be terminated only with the consent and approval of all the Trustee and

32. Termination of the Trust Estate

questioned by Holders, thus bringing the Trust Estate into scrutiny.

B. Trustees are to consider carefully unsecured loans as they are regarded as imprudent and can be make loans for under $5000.00 without regard to interest or security.

Depending on specific circumstances and the prudent judgment of the Board of Trustees, they may any person associated with the Trust Estate.

A. The Trustees are allowed to exercise a general lending power to make or receive loans to or from entrusted.

31. Power to Borrow from the Trust Estate

Exchangers or Holders. The Board of Trustees must unanimously accept the responsibilities thus

C. Full Powers of Attorney can be given to the Board of Trustees by any of the Officers, Holders, to specific duties, as approved by the Board of Trustees.

B. A Limited Power of Attorney is allowed, as long as it expires within six (6) months, and belongs only resign the position than to give away the Trusted power.

A. The First Trustee will not sign over full Power of Attorney to anyone for any reason. It is better to generations.

30. Power of Attorney

E. All Trust Property is held for the Holders and should be increased for the benefit of succeeding the profitability to give a decreasing return.

D. Nonproductive property can be sold at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

in the Trust for the Holders, and are to be sold when the Wasting Asset is still profitable if it forecasts

C. Wasting Assets, such as mines, leaseholds, timberlands, oil and gas wells, and quarries can be held

After the death of the Grantor, no more than Fifteen (15%) will be in high-risk ventures.

greater the risk, the greater the opportunity for gain.

steps as it may consider necessary to assure and enforce the due

4. The Trustee may, in its sole discretion, require reports and take all with the need of guardianship proceedings.

3. The Trustee is to make all pay-outs in a way calculated to dispense parties when made in good faith.

of funds in the manner here prescribed are final and binding on all

2. The decision of the Trustee about direct payments or applications

d. Partial payment directly to the Holder;

c. By Trustees paying directly for the support of the Holder; Holder;

b. To any person or organization providing support for person or Estate if the Holder;

a. To the natural Guardian or the legally appointed Guardian, Conservator, or other fiduciary of the following ways:

may make any payments in the Trustees' discretion, in any one or more, or any combination of the Trustee decide to be unable to wisely or properly handle funds if paid to him or her directly, the Trustee If a Holder entitled to receive income or principal is a minor, an incompetent or a person whom the 1.

VI. Distribution to or for a Minor or Incompetent directly or indirectly gained by the funds thereof.

paragraph apply not only to the benefit devolving on such Holder, but also to any benefits any time, For this paragraph, the term 'benefit' includes movable and immovable property and the terms of this marital power of any spouse of such Holder.

expressly excluded from the community property. These benefits are free from interference, control, or Should such Holder be married or marry in community of property, then any benefit so accruing is property.

of any communal or joint estate of such Holder, but remains his or her sole, separate and exclusive

V. No future benefit devolving on any Holder under this Trust Estate terms or settlement forms a portion

2. As an alternative, the share can be held for a later distribution to the Holder.

Holders on a proportional basis, solely for that particular distribution.

1. The effect of such waiver will be to assign the share such Holder would receive to the remaining Board and recorded in the minutes of this Trust Estate.

Board of Trustees before the date when the distribution is to take place. Such waiver is accepted by the IV. Any Holder may waive a right to any distribution, if a written declaration of waiver is delivered to the Trust increases at contingent intervals no greater than yearly.

III. The Board of Trustees makes a determination about the existence or non existence of distributable or corpus is not discretionary, but is determined solely by the number of TCUs held.

allocated to the corpus of this Trust Estate. The part each Holder is entitled to any distributable income considered to be principal and 'complex' under lawful tax laws for that year. If after any distribution, any income remains, it will be

II. The Board makes a determination yearly about whether the Trust Estate will be considered 'simple' or such increase from being taxable to this Trust Estate.

Estate if not distributed, the Board may distribute, but is not required to distribute, sufficient to prevent there is sufficient profit to distribute to the Holders of TCUs, or gain might become taxable to this Trust If it is determined by the Board of Trustees, or by the Grantor, if the Grantor has reserved this power, inoperable, or its operation is so impaired to continue becomes too much expense or effort.

III. Dissension and lack of cooperating among Trustees and Beneficiaries, causing the Trust to become damage or impact functioning of this Trust Estate.

II. Causes of impossibility arise, for example, natural disasters, and uncontrollable political events, that

I. The Trust corpus falls below $1,000.00.

C. This Trust Estate may be terminated if any of the following factors occur:

and Holders as judged suitable by the Board of Trustees and accepted legal accounting procedures.

B. At dissolution, the Trust Estate will be divided on a proportional basis to the then existing Holders date.

unanimous affirmative vote of the Board of Trustees at least thirty (30) days before each termination

The life of the Trust Estate may, however, be extended for another 25 year term, subject to an

A. This Trust Estate, unless terminated earlier as provided here, will continue for twenty five (25) years.

36. Life and Duration of the Trust Estate

G. All ordinary and necessary expenses in caring for this Trust Estate and its property.

F. Legal, bookkeeping, accounting, and other professional expenses, for the Trust Estate.

premiums for policies for the Trust.

D. Payment of taxes, charges, assessments, or license fees for the Trust Estate. E. Insurance purchase, lease, rental, or otherwise.

C. Expenses in providing necessary supplies, equipment, and materials for the Trust Estate, either by the Trust Estate.

B. Expenses in the operation, maintenance, cleaning, repairing and otherwise caring for the property of providing services, articles, or utilities to the Trust Estate.

A. Reasonable remuneration of the Trustees, managers, caretakers, and any person or entities management, conservation and protection of this Trust Estate, including:

The Trustees pay out of Trust Estate Funds only those expenses incurred in the administration,

35. Administration Expenses

recommended by counselors.

IV. Vocational training will be available per their interest, or as as needed.

III. Psychological, alternative healing methods and professional care

II. Administrative personnel

I. Shelter, food, clothing

(example: runaway teenagers). They will be provided with:

$100,000.00 a year, the Board of Trustees, at their discretion, is directed to set up a Ministry Trust for C. When this Trust Estate achieves over $100,000.00 in assets, or cash flow of greater than organizations.

end, the Co-trustee(s) of this Trust Estate is authorized to contribute to one or more qualified charitable

B. It is the intent of the Grantor that charities and the spirit of charitableness be encouraged. To that support of charitable organizations.

Holder is in need, the Board of Trustees is to take care of that need, using its discretion, before the

A. The Holders will be considered first, before any charitable contributions are decided. That is, if a

34. Charitable Contributions

application of money for the purposes aforesaid.

State of Name of State

Name of First Trustee-s
,First Trustee

· Name of Grantor:
Name of Grantor-s

,2023. Accepted by:

In confirmation of our agreement on Date of Establishment:

Signature and Notary on Next Page

effect nonetheless.

invalid, it shall not affect any of the remaining provisions of the Trust Estate, and they are given legal
If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or provision of this indenture is held to be unenforceable or 38. Severability Clause respect.

upon as an original document and have the full force and effect of the original document in every exact copy of the original, or copies certified by the Executive Secretary as a correct copy, are relied A copy of this document bearing the seal or signature of a Trustee attesting to the fact the copy is an 37. Copies as Originals should be finished.

IV Using sound and legal reasoning, all the TCUs Holders feel for the interests of the Trust, the Trust execution of the Trust Indenture.

properties which were agreed upon between the Grantor and the First trustee at the time of the

This list of property is complete and comprehensive and is the written description of those certain

Trust Estate, nor any power to change in any manner this Trust Indenture or Trust Bylaws.

any manner; nor shall it reserve or keep any ownership or control over the principal or income of the

As part of the consideration provided, the Grantor agrees that it shall not change this Trust Indenture in

· One Dollar Bill:

One Dollar Bill (Anything of value, at parties.

referred to as Trust Certificate Units, that shall be of an equivalent, and yet, indeterminate value to all

The following property is to be exchanged for one-hundred (100) units of beneficial interest, hereinafter

· Name of Trust:

Trustee and on behalf of the Board.

hereby grants to the Board of Trustees(s), the following described property, and accepted by the First

On this day, the Grantor of the Name of Trust in agreement with the Trust Indenture and the Bylaws,

SCHEDULE A

Notary's Signature

Witnessed by hand and official seal that the foregoing paragraph is true and correct.

ate of (person(s)) acted, executed the instrument.

(his/her/their) authorized (capacity/ies,) and that by (his/her/their) (signature(s)) on the instrument the subscribed to the within instrument and acknowledged to me that (he/she/they) executed the same in

Who proved to me on the basis of satisfactory evidence to be the (person(s)) whose names are

· Name of Trustee:

Notary Public, personally appeared before me,

assign and transfer (100) Trust Certificate Units to the following Beneficiaries

In accordance with the Agreement, of NAME OF YOUR TRUST I am hereby directing the Trustees to RE: Grantor's Request to Issue Trust Certificate Units to Beneficiaries.

· Orlando, FL:
Orlando, FL [12345]

· PO Box 12345:
PO Box 12345

Name of Trust

To: Board of Trustees

Witness/Notary:

, who proved to me on the basis of satisfactory evidence to be the man who came before me.

· 20XX:

· 20XX:

20XX, by this

COUNTY OF)

)

STATE OF)

JURAT/ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Grantor: First Trustee:

Witness/Notary:

, who proved to me on the basis of satisfactory evidence to be the man who came before me.

· 20xx:

· 20xx:

20xx, by

this

<COUNTY OR CITY>)

)

· YOUR STATE:

<YOUR STATE>)

JURAT/ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Grantor: <Grantor name>

Respectfully,

I would appreciate your immediate attention to this request

· Mary-anne of the Family Doe:

· 50 TCU:

50 TCU to Mary-anne of the Family

· John-Alex of the Family Doe:

· 50 TCU:

50 TCU to John-Alex of the Family

Name of Trust (Beneficiary) Established on Month xxth, 2023 is changed.

Grantors intention to disinherit or change the bequest to that beneficiary unless the bequest in the trust

Even if a beneficiary's contact information changes and is not updated in the schedule, it is not the Trustees to contact these individuals.

assembled the list of beneficiaries' contact information in order to provide a starting point for the

Instead of inserting that beneficiary's contact information inside of the trust, the Grantors have specific bequest of personal property to a portion of the remainder of the estate.

Throughout the trust, there are references to certain beneficiaries who will receive anything from a

Beneficiary Contact Information

SCHEDULE C

Name all the Property in the Trust

SCHEDULE B

CERTIFICATE OF TRUST

PERSONAL PROPERTY ITEM BENEFICIARY added back to trust estate.

If any listed beneficiary below predeceases me, then the bequest shall lapse, and the item shall be as possible during the trust administration process upon the termination of the trust.

It is desired that the following property be distributed to the following individuals listed below as quickly

· Name of Trust:

Trustees as to how to dispose of cer

he provided in Name of Trust, I have retained the right to use a memorandum as a way to direct the

· Orlando, FL:

Orlando, FL [12345]

· PO Box 12345:

PO Box 12345

Name of Trust

To: Board of Trustees

Memorandum of Personal Property

SCHEDULE D

this

COUNTY)

)

STATE OF)

JURAT/ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Grantor: Trustee:

bind the trust.

Actions by Trustees. While the above named Trustees are serving, either may act independently to copy for funding the trust or for any other reason.

Validity of Copies of The Certification. A copy of the Certificate of Trust shall be as valid as an original such reliance.

relies on the Certificate of Trust, and they shall be held harmless for any resulting loss or liability from Waiver of Claim. The Grantors and Trustees waive any action against any person or organization that A to the Certificate of Trust.

Trustee Powers. The provisions of the trust that contain the Trustees powers are attached as Schedule declarations incorrect.

it has not been modified, revoked, or amended in any way so as to make any of these Declarations Regarding Trust. The trust is in effect as of the date of the Certificate, and

.

Taxpayer Identification Number. The taxpayer identification number for the trust is lifetimes.

Trust Is Irrevocable. The Grantor does not have the power to revoke or amend the trust during their

· Name of Trustee:

Trustees. The currently acting Trustee

· Name of Grantor:

Grantors. The Grantor of the trust is relevant trust provisions.

into the trust or for any other purpose that requires an identification of the trust and the the document that the Certificate of Trust summarizes for purposes of funding assets

Name of Trust. Name of Trust was created by the Grantor on Month xxth, 2023, and is

V. Massage and deep-tissue bodywork
IV. Payments for the services of alternative healers who may not fall under insurance categories
III. Medical insurance
II. Vitamins, minerals and food supplements
I. Prescriptions
only.
P. The power to manage or pay for health-related care or benefits for the members of this Trust Estate catastrophic insurance.
damage, fire casualty and extended coverage, income protection insurance, life insurance and
O. The power to carry insurance of all kinds; including, but not limited to: personal liability and property
N. The power to Dedicate Trust Estate properties for public use.
M. The power to employ employees, consultants, caretakers, property managers and other agents.
L. The power to set up and keep reserves for depreciation.
K. The power to seek zoning, rezoning, variance, or nonconforming use permits.
and to release the same.
J. The power to create servitudes, grant easements and rights-of-way, impose conditions and limits,
I. The power to fulfill covenants, agreements, contracts or credits.
H. The power to subdivide, encumber, partition, and to adjust boundaries.
G. The power to abandon as worthless.
F. The power to demolish improvements.
E. The power to improve, change, and alter.
D. The power to lease or rent.
and grant options.
C. The power to buy, sell, lease, exchange, deed, transfer, assign, hypothecate, invest, loan, borrow,
B. The power to hold, manage or gain unproductive property for development.
A. The power to hold, manage or gain productive property.
the Trust Estate, except as otherwise limited or restricted by the other terms of this Indenture:
The Trustees will have the following powers about personal property, real property and the assets of
TRUSTEE POWERS

SCHEDULE A

CERTIFICATE OF TRUST

Witness/Notary:

, who proved to me on the basis of satisfactory evidence to be the man who came before me.

· 20xx:

· 20xx:

20xx, by

Physical signed/notarized originals are authoritative. Digital copies are backups.
· FILLABLE TEMPLATE · Replace all placeholder fields before notarization.

exchange any property of the Trust by substituting other property of an equivalent value.
investments or reinvestments; or by vetoing proposed investments or reinvestments; or to reacquire or
or other securities of the Trust Estate; to control the investment of the Trust Estate either by directing
No person other than the Trustees have or exercise the power to vote or direct the voting of any shares
CC.

determine income and corpus.

AA. The power to withhold income temporarily to build up the corpus of the Trust. BB. The power to have contractual agreements.

Z. The power to prudently buy long and sell short options, futures, and positions of securities which and domestic markets.

Y. The power to buy securities, both foreign and domestic, and gain stock positions within international extension.

X. The power to continue mortgage investments after maturity either with or without renewal or managers, agents and others for services rendered.

W. The power to pay reasonable compensation to Trustees, consultants, caretakers, employees,

V. The power to delegate authority to trustees, agents, caretakers or employees.

distribute, diversify, change, liquidate, or otherwise run the business.

U. The power to incorporate, enter partnerships, associations or other joint ventures, perform,

T. The power to deal with or secure patents, copyrights, trademarks or the like.

S. The power to deal with title and title insurance problems.

R. The power to hold an undivided interest.

Q. The power to set up and keep reserves in the event of a natural or man-made disaster.

XVII. Nursing home and long-term care

XVI. Psychiatric care

XV. Weekly support groups

XIV. Homeopathy

XIII. Ayurveda medicine

XII. Stress reduction therapy

XI. Chiropractic care

(2) Spiritual self-discovery

(1) Recuperation

X. Retreats for

IX. Emotional and psychological therapy

VIII. Hypnotherapists/regression therapists

VII. Oriental medicine

VI. Hands-on healers
